2 Basis of contract

- 2.1 These Conditions apply to the Contract to the exclusion of any other terms that the Customer seeks to impose or incorporate, or which are implied by trade, custom, practice or course of dealing.
- 2.2 The Order constitutes an offer by the Customer to purchase the Equipment and to have it Installed in accordance with these Conditions. The Customer is responsible for ensuring that the terms of the Order and any applicable Scope Proposal are complete and accurate.
- 2.3 The Order shall only be deemed to be accepted when AVI-SPL issues a written acceptance of the Order, at which point the Contract shall come into existence and shall be legally binding (the "Commencement Date").
- 2.4 The Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the parties. The Customer acknowledges that it has not relied on any statement, promise, representation, assurance or warranty made or given by or on behalf of AVI-SPL which is not set out in the Contract.
- 2.5 Any samples, drawings, descriptive matter, or advertising produced by AVI-SPL and any descriptions or illustrations contained in AVI-SPL's catalogues or brochures are produced for the sole purpose of giving an approximate idea of the Equipment described in them. They shall not form part of the Contract or have any contractual force.
- 2.6 A Scope Proposal given by AVI-SPL shall not constitute an offer. A Scope Proposal and any pricing in connection with it shall only be valid for a period of thirty (30) calendar days from its date of issue. - 4.2 Delivery of the Equipment shall be completed on the Equipment's arrival at the Delivery Location.
- 4.3 Any dates quoted for delivery are approximate only, and the time of delivery is not of the essence. AVI-SPL shall not be liable for any delay in delivery of the Equipment howsoever caused except as arising directly from the failure of AVI-SPL to transport such Equipment to the Delivery Location once received by its suppliers, provided that such failure is not caused by a Force Majeure Event or the Customer's failure to provide AVI-SPL with adequate delivery instructions or any other instructions that are relevant to the supply of the Equipment.
- 4.4 The Customer shall indemnify AVI-SPL for any and all additional costs as a result of any delay to delivery caused by the Customer.
- 4.5 If AVI-SPL is liable for delay in accordance with clause 4.3, its liability shall be limited to the costs and expenses incurred by the Customer in obtaining replacement Equipment of similar description and quality in the cheapest market available, less the price of the Equipment, up to ten percent (10%) of the price set out in the relevant Order.
- 4.6 If the Customer fails to accept delivery of the Equipment within three Business Days of AVI-SPL notifying the Customer that the Equipment are ready, then, except where such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event or AVI-SPL's failure to comply with its obligations under the Contract:
- 4.6.1 delivery of the Equipment shall be deemed to have been completed at 9.00 am on the third Business Day after the day on which AVI-SPL notified the Customer that the Equipment was ready;

- 4.6.3 AVI-SPL shall immediately invoice the Customer 70% of the price of the Equipment as set out in the Order.

Any visible defects must be reported to AVI-SPL in writing within 3 (three) Business Days after the delivery of the Equipment, with reference to the invoice number or, in the absence thereof, the number of the dispatch note or order confirmation. If this period has expired without written notice (complaint) regarding a defect in the Equipment, the Equipment shall be deemed to have been accepted by the Customer. In any case, the Equipment is deemed to be accepted if the Customer has taken the Equipment into use, has delivered it to third parties, or has commissioned it, unless a complaint has been lodged within the stipulated period of 3 (three) Business Days.

- 4.8 If the Customer fails to accept delivery after AVI-SPL notifies the Customer that the Equipment is ready for delivery, the AVI-SPL shall store and insure the Equipment pending delivery, and the Customer shall indemnify AVI-SPL for all costs and expenses incurred by AVI-SPL in doing so.
- 4.9 If twenty (20) Business Days following the notification by AVI-SPL that the Equipment is ready for delivery elapses and the Customer has not accepted delivery, AVI-SPL may resell or otherwise dispose of part or all of the Equipment and, after deducting storage and selling costs, account to the Customer for any excess of the resale price over the price for such Equipment set out in the Order, or invoice the Customer for any shortfall of the resale price below the price of such Equipment set out in the Order, as the case may be.
- 4.10 Subject to 7.3, AVI-SPL may at its sole discretion deliver the Equipment by instalments, which may at its sole discretion be invoiced and paid for separately one hundred percent (100%) immediately upon notification by AVI-SPL that the Equipment has been delivered to the registered address of AVI-SPL (or the Delivery Location if earlier). Each instalment shall constitute a separate Contract. Any delay in delivery or defect in an instalment shall not entitle the Customer to cancel any other instalment.

5 Quality

- 5.1 In the event the Equipment is:
 - 5.1.1 altered;
 - 5.1.2 repaired by someone other than a representative of AVI-SPL; or
 - 5.1.3 operated in a manner inconsistent with established safety operating procedures as outlined in any applicable Instructions; which results, in AVI-SPL's opinion, in a reduction in the value of the Equipment; the warranties contained within this clause 5 and AVI-SPL's obligations under these Conditions will terminate immediately.
- 5.2 The warranty with regard to the Equipment delivered by AVI-SPL is limited to the warranty granted by the manufacturer of the Equipment or the supplier of the software (delivered in connection with the Equipment), both in terms of its substance and its duration. Therefore, only the warranty conditions and warranty period of such manufacturer/supplier apply to the delivered Equipment, or software delivered in conjunction with said Equipment, replacing any deviating provisions in this Contract. The Customer accepts the intended warranty conditions of the manufacturer/supplier. AVI-SPL shall use its reasonable endeavours to supply such warranty conditions along with the Equipment or within a reasonably practicable period after its delivery or, in the case of software, constitute part of the license terms. It follows from the foregoing that AVI-SPL only has a warranty obligation if and insofar as it (or the Customer directly) can claim a warranty obligation from the manufacturer or supplier. The processing of the defective Equipment will be carried out according to the procedure of the manufacturer or supplier and the instructions given by AVI-SPL.
- 5.3 Without prejudice to the provisions in the warranty conditions of the manufacturer, supplier or AVI-SPL, the warranty (whether pursuant to clauses 5.2 or 5.6) will at least lapse if:
 - 5.3.1 without the prior written permission of AVI-SPL, supplier or the manufacturer, repairs, modifications or extensions have been made to the Equipment or Software by the Customer or by others;

- 5.3.2 changes, repairs or extensions have been made to the Equipment or Software that AVI-SPL has indicated would lead to the lapse of the warranty;
- 5.3.3 in AVI-SPL's opinion the Equipment has been used or maintained carelessly, incorrectly or inexpertly;
- 5.3.4 changes have been made to the warranty certificate or any seal of the Equipment has been broken;
- 5.3.5 type numbers, serial numbers and/or warranty stickers are damaged, altered or removed;
- 5.3.6 any defects have arisen by not connecting or using the Equipment or Software as prescribed and/or not connecting or installing (approved) other products to the Equipment or Software; or
- 5.3.7 defects have arisen due to deviating environmental conditions, insofar as such conditions have been stipulated or by other external causes such as fire or water damage.
- 5.4 The Warranty Period or period of warranty provided pursuant to clause 5.2 shall not be extended or renewed by carrying out the work performed, or replacement products supplied within the context of the warranty.
- 5.5 AVI-SPL is under no obligation to repair defects that have been reported after the expiry of the warranty period set by the manufacturer or supplier, unless Parties have agreed in the Contract upon the delivery of Maintenance and Support Services, which includes such a duty to repair. Work and costs of repair that are delivered or made outside the scope of the warranty will be charged by AVI-SPL in accordance with its usual rates.
- 5.6 Only in the event of the warranty conditions of the manufacturer or the supplier of the Equipment being supplied for whatever reason being deemed to not be applicable or are declared inapplicable, AVI-SPL shall warrant (subject to clauses 5.2 and 31), that on delivery, and for a period of ninety (90) calendar days following the date of Installation ("Warranty Period"), the Equipment shall:
 - 5.6.1 conform with its description and any applicable Scope Proposal; and
 - 5.6.2 be free from material defects in Installation.
- 5.7 Subject to clause 5.8, if:
 - 5.7.1 the Customer gives notice in writing to AVI-SPL during the Warranty Period within a reasonable time of discovery that some or all of the Equipment does not comply with the warranty set out in clause 5.8; and
 - 5.7.2 AVI-SPL is given a reasonable opportunity to examine such Equipment; and
 - 5.7.3 the Customer (if asked to do so by AVI-SPL) returns such Equipment to AVI-SPL's place of business at AVI-SPL's cost,

AVI-SPL shall, at its option, repair or replace the defective Equipment, or refund the price of the defective Equipment in full.
- 5.8 AVI-SPL shall not be liable for the Equipment's failure to comply with the warranty set out in clauses 5.2 or 5.6 in any of the following events:
 - 5.8.1 the Customer makes any further use of such Equipment after giving notice in accordance with clause 5.6;

- 5.8.2 the defect arises because the Customer failed to follow AVI-SPL's oral or written instructions as to the storage, commissioning, installation, use and maintenance of the Equipment or (if there are none) good trade practice regarding the same;
- 5.8.3 the defect arises as a result of AVI-SPL following any drawing or design supplied by the Customer;
- 5.8.4 the Customer alters or repairs such Equipment without the written consent of AVI-SPL;
- 5.8.5 the defect arises as a result of fair wear and tear, wilful damage, negligence, or abnormal storage or working conditions; or
- 5.8.6 the Equipment differs from its description or any applicable Scope Proposal as a result of changes made to ensure they comply with applicable statutory or regulatory requirements.
- 5.9 Except as provided in these Conditions, AVI-SPL shall have no liability to the Customer in respect of the Equipment's failure to comply with the warranty set out in clauses 5.2 or 5.6.
- 5.10 The terms implied by sections 12 to 15 of the Sale of Goods Act (Cap. 393) of Singapore are, to the fullest extent permitted by law, excluded from the Contract.
- 5.11 Subject to the M&S Terms where applicable, these Conditions shall apply to any repaired or replacement Equipment supplied by AVI-SPL.

- 6.1 Subject to clause 6.3, the risk in the Equipment shall pass to the Customer on completion of delivery in accordance with clause 4.2.
- 6.2 Subject to clause 7.11, title to the Equipment shall not pass to the Customer until AVI-SPL has received payment in full (in cash or cleared funds) for:
 - 6.2.1 the Equipment; and
 - 6.2.2 any other equipment or services that AVI-SPL has supplied to the Customer.
- 6.3 Where:
 - 6.3.1 title to the Equipment has not passed to the Customer due to failure to pay for such Equipment in full in accordance with clause 6.2, the Customer shall:
 - 6.3.1.1 hold the Equipment on a fiduciary basis as AVI-SPL's bailee;
 - 6.3.1.2 store the Equipment separately from all other equipment held by the Customer and mark it clearly as belonging to AVI-SPL so that they remain readily identifiable as AVI-SPL's property;

 - 6.4.2 where AVI-SPL holds title, require the Customer to deliver up the Equipment and, if the Customer fails to do so promptly, enter any premises of the Customer or of any third party where the Equipment is stored in order to recover it, and once AVI-SPL holds the Equipment and title in its possession AVI-SPL may resell or use such Equipment in the ordinary course of its business.

- 6.5 If, before title to the Equipment passes to the Customer, the Customer becomes subject to any of the events listed in clause 13.3, or AVI-SPL reasonably believes that any such event is about to happen and notifies the Customer accordingly, then, provided that the Equipment has not been resold, or irrevocably incorporated into another product, and without limiting any other right or remedy AVI-SPL may have, AVI-SPL may at any time require the Customer to deliver up the Equipment and, if the Customer fails to do so promptly, enter any premises of the Customer or of any third party where the Equipment is stored in order to recover it.
